

Highlights & Tips

ONHGS

#32 Oct. 2011

October 29, 2011 A big day for ONHGS members and guests.

4 sessions....yes, four!!!

Questions/discussions after each presentation.

9:45AM-- Joe Sheppard:

How to research at the NC archives, and how to research in Washington, D.C.

break

11:00AM-- Ann Hutteman:

Putting family records into book form

lunch

1PM-- Jim Edwards:

Using the computer for lineage research

break

2:15 PM-- June Swinson:

Evolution of cemeteries

These ONHGS members have the knowledge and experience from years of practicing lineage research.

All of this will be at the Northeast Branch Library, Landfall, 1241 Military Cutoff Rd., in Wilmington. The doors will open at 9:15 AM, time for morning coffee and sociability.

Salads or Box lunches will be $9.00 each.

Choices are:

1 Deli sandwich and 1 side:

Roasted Turkey ___ Black Forest Ham ___
Café Tuna salad ___ Chicken Salad ___

Bread: wheat ___ rye ___ country white ___
Or: Wrap it ___

Cheeses: cheddar ___ Swiss ___ havarti ___

Condiments: mayonnaise ___ Dijon mustard ___ lettuce ___ tomato ___ onion ___

Sides: potato salad ___ cheddar macaroni ___ fruit ___ side salad ___ sweet potato chips ___

Or 1 salad:

1. Grilled chicken salad (mixed greens, baby spinach, oranges, red onion, nuts, goat cheese) _____

2. Cobb salad (green leaf lettuce with turkey, bacon, tomatoes, chopped egg, crumbled bleu cheese) _____

Coffee, cold drinks and dessert will be available.

By Monday, Oct. 24th: mail your choice, with a check made out to ONHGS in the amount of $9.00 per meal to:

Linda Lashley
2123 Quiet Lane
Wilmington, NC, 28409

For duplicating this page see www.onhgs.org