SOCIETY NEWS

The editors wish to thank Jim Edwards, Helen Sammons and J. Kenneth Davis for their contributions to this Courier.

Our Society has been extremely fortunate these past four years in having Jim Edwards as our president. He has worked tirelessly to promote our organization and we thank him for his devotion. We welcome our new president, Ms. Charlotte Fetterman, who will be taking office on July 1st! (See the complete list of officers on page 44).

Don't forget to check our website! Our Webmaster, Peter Ambler, has some wonderful information posted! Among the newer listings is the index for the Yopp Funeral Home Registry, which is discussed in detail on page 26.

The editors are always interested in finding new unpublished genealogical material about our area. The Courier can be the conduit for your sharing valuable information about area families with other Society members. Please let us know if you have any suggestions about new series for this journal.

THE YOPP FUNERAL HOME REGISTER

In November 2004, Gene Todd gave the North Carolina Room of the New Hanover Public Library the records of the Yopp Funeral Home, which operated in Wilmington from 1892 until 1966, under the direction of father and son, Walter Edward Yopp, Sr. and Jr. The firm was first located at 206 Princess Street. They were for a time at 211 Princess Street before moving in 1937 to a new building at 1207 Market Street. After the younger Yopp's death in 1968, the business was sold to Pender Burke and continued operating for a time as Burke-Yopp Funeral Home until it closed in the early 1970s.

The early Yopp ledgers from 1892 through 1911 are primarily financial records. They usually show the name of the person responsible for the payment of services, the date of the services and often the cemetery. In some instances, there is more information. These records are not indexed.

The ledgers from 1912 - 1938 contain more complete records, with the decedent being named and date of services rendered. There are approximately 1500 names from the records of this period which have been indexed, annotated and arranged alphabetically by J. Kenneth Davis, using the original record books and other sources. Generally, this contains the name, birth and death dates, next of kin and the burial place. This index is available in the North Carolina Room of the New Hanover Public Library.

The records from 1938 - 1966 are filed in chronological order. This register file contains some 4000 "shucks" numbered from 1 to 4019, and are in date order when the funeral service occurred. (There are some shucks that are dated after 1966, the last being in 1973.) The bulk of the shucks are from 2 February 1938 until December 31, 1966. Please note that the records of 5 March 1943 through 4 March 1945 are missing from the collection.

These cards are seldom filled out in their entirety, but do generally have the place and date of death, names of the parents of the deceased, survivors, pallbearers and the church and funeral information. In addition, there may be other information including correspondence with the family of the deceased, obituary, medical records, etc.- even the details of the clothing purchased for the deceased. This collection of shucks has been cleaned and organized by J. Kenneth Davis. An alphabetical index has been prepared by Ann Hewlett Hutteman, which can be used in the North Carolina Room.

The Courier editor recently found a person "missing" from her family tree for years by looking up the shuck on his funeral. The long, lost relative died in Tacoma, Maryland and did not have a death certificate in New Hanover County, nor a stone in the Winter Park Cemetery. She even found that her father was a pallbearer at the services.

All Lower Cape Fear Researchers should be indebted to Gene Todd, J. Kenneth Davis, Peter Ambler and Ann Hewlett Hutteman for making this collection available for research.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Standards for Sound Genealogical Research

Copyright, 1997 by the National Genealogical Society. Permission granted to copy or publish this material provided it is reproduced in its entirety, including this notice.

Remembering always that they are engaged in a quest for truth, family history researchers consistently:

- record the source for each item of information they collect.
- test every hypothesis or theory against credible evidence, and reject those that are not supported by the evidence.
- seek original records, or reproduced images of them when there is reasonable assurance they have not been altered, as the basis for their research conclusions.
- use compilations, communications and published works, whether paper or electronic, primarily for their value as guides to locating the original records.
- state something as a fact only when it is supported by convincing evidence, and identify the evidence when communicating with others.
- limit with words like "probable" or "possible" any statement that is based on less than convincing evidence, and state the reasons for concluding that it is probable or possible.
- avoid misleading other researchers by either intentionally or carelessly distributing or publishing inaccurate information.
- state carefully and honestly the results of their own research, and acknowledge all use of other researchers' work.
- recognize the collegial nature of genealogical research by making their work available to others through publication, or by placing copies in appropriate libraries or repositories, and by welcoming critical comment.
- consider with open minds new evidence or the comments of others on their work and the conclusions they have reached.

MORE SOCIETY NEWS

Held on March 12, 2005, the Eastern Regional Spring Workshop, which was sponsored jointly by the North Carolina Genealogical Society and the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society was a success by any standard. Over 70 genealogists were in attendance at the main library to hear Lloyd Bockstruck of Dallas, Texas, give four interesting and extremely informative lectures. He emphasized the importance of Court records, compared Colonial land records of North and South Carolina, gave hints as to how to research the English in the Caribbean and traced migration trails from North Carolina into the states of South Carolina, Alabama Georgia and Mississippi. We are grateful to NCGS, and Ann Bashnigt and her committee for including our local society in this event.

Our picnic held on April 23, 2003 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church was also a success. We had about 30 in attendance, who enjoyed the fellowship and particularly the delicious desserts prepared by our talented culinary members. Mr. John D. Tew presented a program on the American Revolution Battle of Elizabethtown. Ms. Lucy Glover, Church Historian, graciously, told us of the history of St. Paul's and gave us a brief tour of the sanctuary. Thank you to all who made the occasion one to remember!

At a meeting held during lunch at the Eastern Workshop, our society elected a new officers. Ms. Charlotte Fetterman has graciously consented to become our new president. C. L.(Pete) Davis will remain as Vice-president. Carolyn Corbett will again be Secretary and will be assisted by Marjorie Cuzzocrea. Other officers will be: Kay Berg, Treasurer; John Butler and Joseph Sheppard, Member-at-Large, Board of Directors; Pete Ambler, Webmaster; Jim Edwards, Past President and Beverly Tetterton and Ann Hutteman, Editors, Clarendon Courier.

The North Carolina Genealogical Society will hold its Annual Meeting and Workshop at the Brier Creek Country Club, Raleigh, NC, on November 11, 12, 2005. Craig R. Scott, a professional genealogist and historian of national reputation specializing in military records at National Archives and Records Administration and William H. Brown, editor of the North Carolina Governors' Papers, will speak on "Finding Your Military Ancestors."

ONE LAST WORD....

"This is to certify, that I, Sally Malone have consented to be married to Larkin Gravell. I am of lawful age and am mighty willing."
